TO GRANT PERMISSION TO SUE THE STATE

Mr. Thornberry offered the following resolution:

H. C. R. No. 56, To grant Walter P. Dickerson permission to sue the State.

Whereas, Walter P. Dickerson, who enlisted in Machine Gun Troop, 3rd Texas Cavalry, June 17, 1918, while in such service and while called for duty during the storm and flood at Rockport, Texas, and during an emergency prior to October 5, 1920, suffered severe internal injuries while obeying the orders of his superior officers in line of duty; and

Whereas, The said Walter P. Dickerson, by reason of said injuries and since said date has been permanently disabled, and his said commanding officers were aware of his physical condition and should have known that serious permanent injury would result from the duties assigned the said Walter P. Dickerson but in spite thereof ordered that the same be performed and by said orders and negligence caused said injuries; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring, That the said Walter P. Dickerson be given the permission and consent of the State of Texas, to file and prosecute suit or suits against the State of Texas and the Adjutant Generals Department thereof; and, be it further

Resolved, That services of all necessary process may be had upon the Adjutant General of the State of Texas and the Attorney General of the State of Texas with the same force and effect as in civil cases; and, be it further

Resolved, That a certified copy of this resolution when presented to the District Court in which said suit is filed or transferred to by said Walter P. Dickerson, shall be conclusive evidence that the Legislature has consented to such suit being filed, and that permission has been granted to said Walter P. Dickerson to bring suit against the State of Texas and the Adjutant Generals Department of the State of Texas.

The crowded condition of the calendar and the importance of the subject matter of this resolution create an imperative public necessity for the suspension of the Constitutional Rule, that all bills be read on three separate days in each House, and said rule is hereby suspended and this resolution shall take effect from and after its passage, and be it so enacted.

The resolution was read second time, and was referred, by the Speaker, to the Committee on State Affairs.

REQUESTING CERTAIN INFORMATION FROM SOCIAL SECURITY BOARD IN REGARD TO OLD AGE ASSISTANCE

Mr. Cathey offered the following resolution:

Whereas, In discussion on the floor of the House of the liberalization of the Old Age Assistance, we are frequently confronted with the argument that to liberalize the Old Age Assistance Law would conflict with provisions of the Social Security Act of Congress of the United States; and

Whereas, Many Members of the House are desirous of knowing what the result would be in case our law should be amended so that under such said Act people who own small homes but are in need, would be eligible for Old Age Assistance; therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That the Chief Clerk of the House be instructed to forward a copy of this resolution to the Social Security Board at Washington, D. C., requesting an immediate answer as to whether or not the Social Security Board would continue to furnish their part of the Old Age Assistance or as to whether or not it would be in violation of their Old Age Security Act for Texas to go ahead and give each person coming under the provisions of the said contemplated Act a pension of not more than $15.00, per person and as to whether the Old Age Security Act would prevent those who are in authority under the Old Age Security Act, from selecting those on our pension roll who are in dire need of more assistance than the State is actually giving them; and, be it further Resolved, To request of Mr. Baine or whoever is in charge, that a report be forwarded to the House at once in order that we may have a little better idea as to just what can be done in liberalizing the Texas Old Age Assistance Act.

CATHEY,
FIELDEN.

The resolution was read second time.

Question recurring on the resolution, yeas and nays were demanded.

The resolution was adopted by the following vote:

HOUSE BILL NO. 233 ON THIRD
READING

The Speaker laid before the House, on its third reading and final passage,

H. B. No. 233, A bill to be entitled "An Act authorizing Mrs. Fannie Williams, a widow, to sue the State of Texas and/or the State Highway Commission in its official capacity, on account of damages to Block 28—A Williams Addition to Waxahachie, Ellis County, Texas, by reason of the construction over and maintenance across said lot of State Highway No. 6, being United States Highway No. 77, as constructed and maintained across and upon said lands by the State Highway Commission of Texas, fixing the venue of such suit and providing for the issuance and service of process therein."

The bill was read third time.

Mr. Johnson of Ellis offered the following amendments to the bill:

Amend House Bill No. 233, by adding a new section to be known as Section 3, reading as follows:

"Sec. 3. The fact that there is now no law permitting Mrs. Fannie Williams to bring suit against the State of Texas for said damages, creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days in each House be suspended, and the same is hereby suspended, and this Act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted."

Amend the caption of House Bill No. 233, by changing the period after the last sentence therein to a semicolon and add: "; and declaring an emergency."

The amendments were severally adopted.

House Bill No. 233 was then passed by the following vote:

HERZIK, Chairman.

In Memory of
Hon. J. K. Freeman

The Speaker laid before the House, for consideration at this time, the following resolution:

S. C. R. No. 43, In memory of Hon. J. K. Freeman.

Whereas, In the deeply deplored passing of J. K. Freeman on February 23rd, within a short span of time Cameron, Milam County, Texas, was again called upon to surrender another of its most beloved and highly regarded citizens to the imperious summons of death; who answered that last summons of the Grim Reaper as gallantly and as preparedly as he has always answered every call in life; and

Whereas, In the State which proudly claims J. K. Freeman as its own, a deep void has been left in the hearts of all who loved and honored him for his great gifts of mind and heart, manifest to all with whom he came in intimate contact; who gave unstintingly to every needy cause, who made great and valuable contributions to his State and his community, who denied his contributions and benefactions to no worthy enterprise, whose entire career as a citizen of Texas is eminently worthy of emulation; and

Whereas, J. K. Freeman leaves behind him a record so highly deserving of retrospection, born in Tupelo, Mississippi, a son of T. H. and Mrs. Jane Freeman, he spent his early manhood in that State, but in 1886 came to Texas where he lived, and shall always live in honored memory. His young manhood was spent in teaching school in Milam County. He pursued the study of law and in Milam County a few years later, was admitted to the bar. From 1894 to 1898, he held the post of District Attorney, also serving as Justice of the Peace in that county. A man of honest and firm conviction, fearless in his opinions and performance of duty and in his championship of the constitutional rights of the people; and

Whereas, J. K. Freeman, though wearing no crown, possessed all the princely virtues of a monarch; preached no gospel save the creed of infinite kindness, asked no reward save the satisfaction of seeing his fellowmen reach their goals, using his worldly gains for the good and welfare of all humanity; and

Whereas, By his innumerable good deeds, J. K. Freeman shall enjoy the immortality that is imperishable, for it is said

"The book of life is writ in deeds alone;
No dust of Death can ever make them dim.
The records of immortal souls live on
With God, so long as man has lived with him"; and

Whereas, The contributions of J. K. Freeman to both community and State shall ever keep his memory green and have merited him the highest honor and ovation his State can pay; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Members of the Senate and House of Representatives concurring, To acknowledge the loss of his inspiring presence and his splendid record before the bar of Texas, and that a copy of this resolution be spread on the memorial pages of the Senate and House Journal of the day, to designate the love and esteem in which was held this great and good soul and letting this serve as an acknowledgment of the debt Texas owes, and the tribute Texas pays, to a true son of the people; and also, be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate, and the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives send the family of the deceased a copy of this resolution under their respective seals and that when the Senate and the House adjourn today, they do so in silent tribute to a man whose name shall live long in the consciousness of his State and in the affections of his friends and sorrowing family.

The resolution was read second time, and was unanimously adopted.
